

Alternative approaches for working with voice-hearers

A Workshop of the Voice-Hearing Network in the Collaborating Centre for Values-based Practice in Health and Social Care

St Catherine's College, Oxford University Manor Road, OX1 3UJ

Date: Wednesday 24th January. Time 10 am – 4 pm.

Aim: This workshop will launch the Voice-Hearing Network. A wide variety of presentations will explore innovative ways of working with people who hear voices.

- |                     |   |
|---------------------|---|
| 9.30 am             | Arrival, registration and coffee  |
| 10 am               | Outline of the day. Chair, Professor Bill Fulford   |
| 10.10 am            | Dr Mark Hopfenbeck, Gjøvik University College, Norway. Responding to trauma dialogically: an introduction to peer-supported open dialogue. |
| 10.50 am            | Mary Coaten, Durham University. Dance movement therapy: an embodied approach to psychosis.   |
| 11.30 am            | Tea Break.  |
| 11.35 am            | Roz Austin, Durham University. Creative practices for mediating relationships with voices.   |
| 12.00 am            | Interactive discussion – How helpful are these alternative approaches for working with voice-hearers? Roz Austin. Chair.                   |
| 1.00 pm             | Lunch   |
| PM Workshops |   |
| 1.30 pm             | Working group: Launch of the Voice-Hearing Network   |
| 3.15 pm             | Tea break   |
| 3.30 pm             | Closing   |

To book a free place simply email Roz – r.v.austin@durham.ac.uk