

MAKE A SCRIPT COME ALIVE

a free workshop for young people who hear, see or sense things that other people don't

WHAT

Come along on Saturday 9th March and have fun taking a story from the page and turning it into drama. Experiment with what directors, actors, set designers and costume designers might need to think about in order to put on a performance.

The workshop will give you the chance to:

- express yourself
- make a script come alive
- try out drama and/or design skills in a safe, supportive setting
- meet other young people.

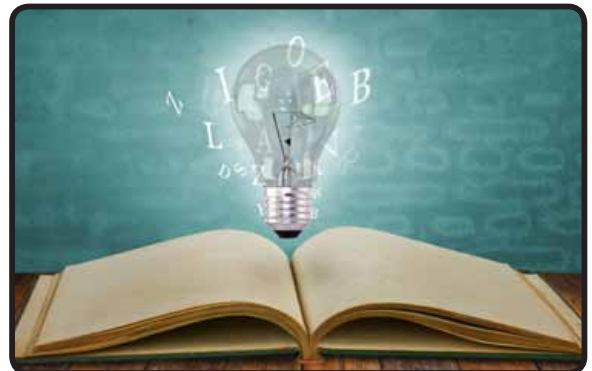

WHO CAN COME?

The workshop is open to any young person (aged 18 or under) who hears or sees things that other people don't.

WHAT ABOUT PARENTS & SUPPORTERS?

If you have a parent or family member you'd like to bring along, we're running a support workshop just for them in another room. Just get them to book a place too.

WHAT YOU'D LIKE FROM THE WORKSHOP

You don't have to fill this in, but the more you tell us before you turn up the easier it'll be for us to plan a workshop that suits you the best.

I'm interesting in coming to the workshop because:

Is there anything you'd like us to know about you that will help you feel really included in the activities? You can also give us a call or email if you'd like to talk in person.
