

BBC FILM ABOUT MENTAL HEALTH

NO PREVIOUS EXPERIENCE NECESSARY !

LARA MANWARING CASTING is a company that finds people for film & TV. Previous projects worked on include the Channel 4 series Top Boy.

We are currently looking for someone to play a supporting role in a fictional BBC feature film about mental health. The aim is to be authentic, positive and to avoid stigma. For this role, we are looking for:

MEN aged 40 – 65, based in or around London,
who have heard voices, experienced psychosis,
or been in hospital for their mental health

We want to collaborate and listen to your ideas to create something realistic and truthful. We welcome people of all shapes, sizes and ethnicities.

NO PREVIOUS ACTING EXPERIENCE IS NEEDED!

( Why not give it a try and see if you like it?

Many people have acting talent that they didn't even know about! )

If interested, please send a photo and a message, or preferably a short video (1-3 minutes) either by email to assistant@laramanwaring.com or by Whatsapp to 07307 058739 (no calls please) telling us a bit about yourself, including your name, age, and where you are based.

It may take a few days but we aim to respond as quickly as we can. Successful applicants will be fully supported throughout the process. This is a great opportunity and whoever gets the role, it will be WELL PAID.
